The following weekly instructions were issued to members of Tudeh District Committee No. 7:

1. For the week beginning 15 March:
  - a. During the No Ruz holidays members should avoid keeping any incriminating papers in their homes or on their persons.
  - b. In the elections for the local and municipal councils all members and Party sympathizers should vote for candidates recommended by the Party.<sup>1</sup>
  - c. Members were told to read the book entitled War Mongers of the 20th Century by Adam Furush Aneh Gharnah Ristum, dealing with the American loan to Iran.
  - d. Members were warned against a certain person who is a G-2 agent.
  - e. A special edition of the newspaper Maslahat will be published for No Ruz.<sup>2</sup>
  - f. Membership dues in the Partisans of Peace organization should be paid as soon as possible.
2. For the week beginning 22 March:
  - a. Members, together with their families and friends, should participate in a demonstration on 27 March in protest against

Anglo-American bacteriological warfare in Korea.

- b. Committees to assist the unemployed should be established in working class districts using the slogan, "Employment and Bread for Everyone." Members should bring the unemployed to meetings of these committees.
  - c. Members should take part in a demonstration on 28 March at Fowzia Square, sponsored by the Democratic Youth Organization.
  - d. Members were warned against a certain person who is a police agent.
  - e. Accounts for the sale of the newspapers, Maslahat, Kabutar-e-Solh, and Javanan-e-Democrat should be settled through 4 April.
3. For the week beginning 29 March:
- a. Members should remain at Tehran on 2 April, the traditional day for picnics.
  - b. Members should report immediately any information they may have on the identities of persons wounded or missing, as a result of the 28 March riot.
  - c. Members should submit to the Party the names and addresses of members of their families or past friends who belong to the National Iranian Workers Party of Mozaffar Baghai or who serve in the newly-formed "Police Commandos."
  - d. Members were asked to purchase a book entitled, Maktabeh No (New Doctrine) written by Afrashteh (fnu), and Samadi (fnu).<sup>3</sup>
1. Comment. The local and municipal councils refer to echelons of the Central United Council, a Tudeh labor union auxiliary. Most of the members of Tudeh District Committee No. 7, located in southeast Tehran, are factory workers who, at the same time, belong to locals of the illegal Central United Council. The purpose of this directive is to ensure that the union officials elected are Tudeh members in good standing rather than unionists who have not yet joined the Party.
  2. Comment. Maslahat is a publication of the Peace Partisans.
  3. Comment. Afrashteh: probably Mohammad Ali Afrashteh, candidate from Resht in Majlis elections, who was supported by Tudeh Party.
Samadi: possibly "Mullah" Mirza Samad, a Tudeh-designated mullah.
